

APPEFORD-ON-THAMES FREEDOM OF INFORMATION POLICY STATEMENT

Who we are and what we do

A list of Councillors, their contact details and how to contact the Parish Clerk can be found on the website: Appleford Parish Council Website (<https://appleford-pc.gov.uk>)

What we spend and how we spend it

The current and previous financial year information and the annual auditors report, the District Council precept for the current financial year and details of grants made and received for the current financial year, is available in hard copy format from the Clerk.

What our priorities are and how we are doing

The annual Parish Meeting report by the Chairman for the current and previous year is available in hard copy from the Clerk.

How we make decisions

The agenda for each month's meeting is posted on both the village noticeboards and the website. Records of decisions made by the Parish Council are held in the minutes of the meetings which are available on the website and in hard copy format from the Clerk.

Responses to planning applications are available from the Clerk in hard copy format.

Our policies and procedures

The Parish Council and Councillors currently follow the Standard Code of Conduct as published by The Standards Board for England. Copies are available on the website or from the offices of the Vale of White Horse District Council, which may make their own charge for the information.

Our current policies are published on our council website or are available from the Clerk in hard copy format.

Lists and registers

The Parish Council asset register is available for inspection. The register of member's interests is available in hard copy from the Clerk and published on the Vale of White Horse District Council's website.

The service we offer

Appleford Recreation Ground is owned and maintained for recreational use by the Parish Council. The children's play equipment and outdoor gym equipment is supplied by and maintained by the Parish Council.

Schedule of charges

All the above items which are declared to be available in hard copy format will be charged at 10p/sheet of A4 if requested. The Parish Council offers black and white photocopying only. Postage, if incurred, will be charged at the actual cost of the Royal Mail second class delivery service.
